WHAT YOU LIKE

There's no wrong way to like art.
If you like it, that's enough.

IT DOESN'T HAVE TO BE DEEP

DOCTOR
ZIGGY
STUDIO

Even though I'm a psychiatrist, my paintings don't have some deep Freudian meaning behind them. I paint something because I like the idea. And if you like a painting because it makes you feel a certain way or it fits your room, that's enough.

SUNGLASSES

I painted a series of sunglasses because I like sunglasses - even though I don't wear them.

You may like it because you want actual sunglasses that look like that.

DOLLAR SIGN

I painted this because I like money.

You may like it because you like money too. Or because it's a bit obnoxious.

EXPLODING HEADS

I painted a series of exploding heads because I thought exploding heads would be interesting.

You may like it because one of them looks like how you feel after a long day.

PUT IT WHERE YOU WANT

Walls are optional.
If you want it there, put it there.

IT DOESN'T HAVE TO MATCH

Old. New. Loud. Traditional. Whatever.
If you like them together, they go together.

ORIGINALS AREN'T THE ONLY WAY TO OWN ART

ART SHOULDN'T REQUIRE A TRUST FUND

You don't need original-art money to live with art you love.
